

A durable and versatile sleep pod

The timeless, tubular design of Podtime Original (formerly Podtime Standard) will fit well into any workplace. Double side entry makes the sleep pod easy to enter, but if you are tight on space, it can be provided with front-entry doors, which comes in transparent or solid options according to your preferences.

Podtime Original is an excellent choice if you're looking for a versatile sleep pod with full privacy and high durability. Perfect for hospitals, manufacturing, and other workplaces with large numbers of staff.

Allowing employees a brief rest during the work day gives them the opportunity to boost their productivity and increase their wellbeing. See for example this study on the effect of napping on cognitive abilities. Read also our white paper relating to the health care sector in the UK.
